OFFICIAL PAPER OF COCHISE COUNTY

The Indiana Democrat who has resigned the postoffice at Cope because his salary for March amounted to less than half a dollar, knows what it is to eat Dead Sea fruit. He had been a candidate for that position for many years.

They are putting the question of prohibition rather pointedly in Texas. "Shall Texans go without whiskey?" asks a newspaper, which then proceeds to explain the awful meaning of the issue. Texas without whisky would be an extinct volcano.

Democracy is on the high road to a Belshazzar's feast. It may not be reached this year or next, but it will get there. Mr. Carlisle used to be welcomed home in Conington with processions, bonfires, howling mobs in the public places and barbecues where burgoo was served. This Spring he was given a select banquet after the manner of the men who know not Jefferson and Jackson.

The Governor has made the following appointments for Sanitary Commissioners, under the recent quarantine law passed by the Legislature: Thomas Halleck, of Mohave county, Henry Smith of Apache county, and C. M. Bruce, of Cochise. He is not acquainted with the first named gentlemen, but as to Mr. Bruce, his appointment will give great satisfaction to the people of Cochise county, particularly the cattlemen. The EPITAPH congratulates the Governor upon the selection of Mr. Bruce.

There is in Chicago idle, at the present time, upwards of $200,000,000, and the capitalists of that growing city are looking westward with a view of investing. The Chemical Bank, alone, of that city, has $70,000,000, which must, under the conditions of the depositors, long since dead, be invested in real estate. These vast accumulated millions will eventually find their way to this western coast, and Arizona is destined to share in the distribution. Mining investments are almost at a standstill, and men of means are running wild over lands in the west. Never before in the history of the world has there been such a land boom, it is reaching far into the sunny clime of Mexico, and where it will end no man can tell. The millions of surplus have been locked up in the iron vaults of the country for years, but the temptation to bring it forth and invest in lands is too strong to be resisted, and the consequence is that the money is scattered broadcast throughout the State of California, and is gradually finding its way to the Territory of Arizona.

There is a twaddling little chipper in Phenix who is constantly tooting his little whistle, and strange, the little "critter" at times directs his popgun in the direction of Tombstone, surrounded as he is, by all that makes mankind joyous and happy, green trees, blooming orchards and a growing, prosperous community. It seems as though this specimen would take a casual glance at the beautiful valley which surrounds the pretty little city of Phenix, and once in a great while, publish in his excuse for a newspaper. Some of the many advantages which this charming country presents, instead of his constant, contemptible and harmless little slurs which he aims at Governor Zuliick and other men throughout the Territory. The EPITAPH is neither a defender nor an apologist for Governor Zuliick, but we have too much respect for the people of Arizona, and our intelligent readers to be eternally harping upon his shortcomings. In our opinion the present governor of Arizona will rank in every respect with his predecessors. If this Phenix contortionist is in possession of anything damaging against Governor Zuliick, why don't he publish it, and be done with it, and not insult our citizens by his little despicable, meaningless flings. Maricopa county is without doubt one of the grandest portions of our Territory, it is rich in every thing that tends to enrich its people, but this mile post on the road to progress stands steadfast in his position and growls and snarls at every man and everything which he cannot imitate. The individual who can sit calmly amid such surroundings and conditions as exist at present in Maricopa county and content himself as does this fellow, of whom we speak, is unworthy of further consideration.

Chief Crowley expects to hear officially regarding the arrest to-morrow.

The Interstate Commission.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—In reply to bishop Knickerbocker, of Indianapolis, who enquired as to the right of railroads to transport missionaries at special rates, the commission writes that it has no power in the matter. There is no doubt, Judge Cooley adds, "in the right of railroads to grant special privileges to religious teachers and deciding good faith what they can do, they can scarcely be said to incur the risk of penalty." Replies of similar purport have been made to enquires with respect to the transportation of people as acts of charity.

The Pistol Work.

ANNAPOLIS, April 20.—Lieutenant John Donenhower, the artie explorer shot and killed himself at the Naval Academy to-day. He had mental trouble after he came back from the artie regions. He was found lying on his rug in front of the fireplace with a tag tied to his button-hole, "send me to my brother at Washington." Although he has had mental trouble since he returned from the artie regions; what immediately led to the suicide is thought to have been the recent grounding of on its way to Norfolk which he had charge of, and for which it is supposed he had a fear of being court martialled. Furthermore he was very intimate with young Robert M. Gatewood, who recently committed suicide in Carolina and whom he saw in death. It is supposed this death suggested the mode to him. His wife formerly a Miss Sloan of New York, is away with her parents. Lieutenant Donenhower, leaves two children. He was about 35 years old and an intelligent and polished officer.

The Queen's Visit.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—Queen Kaproluni of the Hawaiian kingdom arrived this morning from Honolulu on the steamer Australia. She was accompanied by the Princess Ledino Kalani and a number of high officials of the Hawaiian government. The principal object of the queen's visit is to be present at Queen Victoria's jubilee celebration in London on June 20th, the Loyal party will remain about a week when they will leave for Washington to pay their respects to the President and Mrs Cleveland, after a short stay there at the Capital they will proceed to New York thence to London. Before returning the Queen will also visit some of the principal cities of the world as she has not been outside of her kingdom before.

Dins to the Front.

LAREDO, April 20.—This country is in the throes of another Presidential election, and every indication points to the fact that Diaz, is a candidate for re-election notwithstanding that the constitution of the country strictly prohibits a second term. President Diaz, is a complete master of the situation, and will undoubtedly have the constitution amended, so as to permit him, to succeed himself. The people in this section are much excited at the present state of affairs. The army and State governors are all tools of the President, and stand ready with loaded muskets to enforce his bidding. The Mexicans are patient people, as a general thing, but this innovation on the established laws of their country, is very trying to their loyalty. Several serious quarrels have already occurred over the pending election, and it is feared that bloodshed will be the result of the present bad feeling.

To poison a well is one of the worst crimes. It is worse to poison the fountain of life for one's self and for posterity. Often by carelessness, or misfortune, or inheritance this has been done. Ayer's Sarsaparilla goes back of the symptoms, picks up these impure seeds from the blood, the vital stream, and restores appetite, strength and health.

Notice.

All those gentlemen who kindly volunteered to donate pictures to the Rescue Hose company for the decoration of their quarters are respectfully requested to leave the same with the steward of the company.
